ORGANISERS

The Department of Commerce, University of North Bengal

The Post Graduate Department of Commerce was established in 1965 with the purpose to promote state of the art teaching and research in Business Operations and Management. The primary programmes offered by the department are Masters in Commerce, with specializations offered in Accounting, Finance, Marketing, Banking and Human Resource Management and also Ph.D. programmes in these disciplines. The alumni of this department are currently working in universities, colleges all over India, institutes like IIMs, public and private sector banks, the revenue department of the Government of West Bengal, the Income tax department, and Insurance companies. The University of North Bengal, since its inception in 1962, has been fulfilling the objectives of imparting higher education and research. The University has shouldered the responsibility of dissemination of knowledge by judicious expansion of its role in advanced, non-conventional, applied and job-oriented fields keeping the quality of education on par with global standards at a low cost. The University lush green campus covers an area of nearly 315.99 acres of land at the foothills of Himalaya in close proximity of vast plains around it with a fascinating glimpse of the Kanchenjunga peak, tea gardens and forest cover and is equipped with conference halls, guest houses, hostels for boys' girls' students and research scholars. The campus also has a health centre and many playgrounds to accommodate national sports.

The Institute of Company Secretary of India (Siliguri Chapter, Eastern India Regional Council)

The ICSI is a national professional body in India under the ownership of the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, GoI with the objective of promoting, regulating, and developing the profession of company secretaries in India. It is headquartered in New Delhi, has four regional offices at New Delhi, Chennai, Kolkata and Mumbai, and has 73 chapters around the country.

One of the most important of those chapters is the Siliguri Chapter of Eastern India Regional Council. It was established with a vision 'to be a global leader in promoting good corporate governance'. The organization wholeheartedly puts its effort to accomplish a mission to develop high calibre Professionals facilitating good corporate governance. The motto of this chapter is 'to speak the truth, abide by the law'.

The members of the ICSI are highly qualified Professionals playing a key role in ensuring compliance with the laws and promoting sound Corporate Governance practices in Indian Corporates.

Company Secretaries are a company's Key Managerial Personnel (KMP). They often hold the position of a compliance officer and play a crucial role in ensuring the efficient administration of the company.
