Eligible students may apply online upon submission of parents' income certificate issued by government official not below the rank of Joint BDO. This is the first round of hostel admission and to participate in this process the students need to comply with the followings –

1. Students admitted in 1st semester PG till 19th September, 2024
2. Admission taken for PG courses in the Raja Rammohunpur Campus (Main Campus) only. Students admitted for any PG course at Jalpaiguri Campus is not eligible for hostel at this point of time
3. He / She has not availed NBU Hostel facility before, even may be for some other PG course (except BLIS to MLIS)

The merit list will be prepared based on selection criteria adopted by the University and mere fulfilment of eligibility criteria does not guarantee hostel admission.

It is clarified that the above admission process is for certain percentage of hostel seats only. Admission portal will be reopened subsequently for further rounds of PG 1st semester admissions as well as those who will not get chance in the first round of hostel admission.
